Leadership  Network Advance

Special Feature of a Week of LN Advance

By: Ron Edmondson, CEO Leadership Network

A few weeks ago, we first introduced you to our LN Associates. Leadership Network has a long history of helping the church “see around the corner” to accelerate growth and innovation. Part of this is done as we are continually listening and observing changes occurring in our churches, culture and world. LN Associates are a group of diverse, millennial leaders who are helping us do that for a next generation. What I love about them is that they are energetic, entrepreneurial and have their own disciple-making ministries, yet they are humble, hungry and teachable. They equally want to learn from older generations. They are already making us a better organization.

This week will look a little different. We don't want to spam your inbox, but I do want you to know each of these fresh voices. You will want to stay tuned not only this week, but in the months to follow, as we learn from this sharp group of young leaders.

Grant Skeldon

Founder of Initiative Network & Next Gen Advisors

Leadership Network is convening and accelerating some of the most influential churches in the nation. I just wanted to join where God is already moving while bringing my unique perspective to the table.

I hope to contribute by diversifying the network, normalizing discipleship, and emphasizing the importance of Sunday to Monday.

Church Leader, We apologize for not including one of the links in our last email. To
